Guam Temps Inc. names Guzman president

Jenynne Guzman has been named president of Guam Temps Inc.

Jenynne Guzman

According to a press release, the former general manager took on her new role Jan. 19. She assumes her new role as majority owner of the company, alongside founder Maureen Newman, who began the business in 1988.

Due to strategic considerations, Guam Temps Inc. offered Guzman majority ownership, "with confidence and extraordinary courage that she will propel the company to new heights," according to the press release.

For more than 34 years, the company has provided human resources and employment services to both local and international companies, the press release stated. And it has helped thousands of Guamanians gain employment.

Guzman obtained her master of business administration from the University of Maryland Global Campus in March 2021.

She received her bachelor's degree in business management with a concentration in marketing from the University of Guam in 2010. Guzman also serves in the Guam Army National Guard.

Her human resources, marketing and leadership background have prepared her for this new role as owner of Guam Temps, the release stated.

According to the press release, Guzman is a hardworking and experienced professional driven by opportunity. Her passion and 'can-do' attitude push her desire to meet challenges with possibilities and solutions with the team at Guam Temps.

"Ms. Guzman and her team (have) proven to be experienced and qualified to continue Guam Temps' goal of providing temporary and contract employees for businesses and contractors. I'm proud to see this change and watch the company grow with Guam's ongoing employee needs," Newman said.

Newman established the business with "a simple yet effective business model to help people and businesses succeed by finding the right people to get the job done," according to the press release. (Daily Post Staff)

Action PAC prepares for election; announces new executive director

As election year 2022 begins, Action PAC Inc., a local political action group, has named Phillip Leddy II as its new executive director. Leddy has been appointed to the leadership role to drive the PAC's efforts for the election in November, according to a release from the organization. He replaces Laura Dacanay, who led APAC through the 2020 election season.

"We are pleased to welcome Phillip as the PAC's new executive director," said Christine Baletto, Action PAC chairwoman. "Phillip brings a fresh perspective to this role, and he has the energy and vision to take the PAC into the 2022 election and beyond."

Leddy is currently serving as the director of sales, marketing, and business development at Guam Copier and is an independent COVID-19 testing facilitator for Guam and Saipan. He has more than 15 years of leadership experience working with small businesses and large corporations in Guam and California.

Leddy is an active member of Guam Chamber of Commerce, Guam Young Professionals, Guam Contractors Association, Guam Hotel and Restaurant Association, Toastmasters Guam Chapter, and other church and civic organizations. He has been a member of Action PAC since its inception, according to the release.

"I've been a member of the PAC from the start, and I am confident I can build momentum and support for the PAC's important platform this election season," he said. "There's a lot of uncertainty about Guam's future, which makes this election one of the most significant events of our time. Our residents - working families, manamko' and recent graduates - are calling for legislators who can dynamically lead our island and bring innovative solutions for economic recovery."
